PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Senior Product Designer, Product Owner, and former Head of Product Design with 20+ years of experience in UX, product strategy, and digital product development across enterprise and regulated environments.

Led and managed a multidisciplinary UX and Product Design team of 29 designers, and operated as Product Owner across complex enterprise and safety-critical systems, contributing to product discovery, prioritisation, and cross-functional delivery.

Delivered digital products across healthcare, aerospace, defence, railway, and enterprise software domains, working across the full product lifecycle from discovery and definition through to design and delivery.

Strong expertise in UX research, interaction design, information architecture, usability engineering, and Human Factors, with experience designing complex systems, workflows, and enterprise digital products.

Proven ability to lead discovery workshops, facilitate stakeholder alignment, and translate ambiguity into structured product direction and actionable roadmaps.

My portfolio is available upon request.
